WHO WE ARE

Newman Eventus is an independent management consultancy supporting small and medium-sized organisations involved in design, engineering, and construction activities.

Drawing on a unique blend of technical, commercial, and administrative capabilities and twenty years of international industry experience, we provide project management, technical writing, and troubleshooting services with an emphasis on outcomes.

WHY CHOOSE US?

Capability

At Newman Eventus we focus on outcomes and deliver when it matters.

Flexibility

Newman Eventus can adapt to any situation and deliver the outcome you need.

Experience

With Newman Eventus you will benefit from our years of international business experience.

“

Organisations need people who can shoulder responsibility, make decisions, and communicate effectively. This combination is rarer among managers than it should be.
