WHO WE ARE

Newman Eventus is an industrial project management consultancy supporting small and medium-sized organisations involved in design, engineering, construction, and manufacturing activities.

Drawing on a unique blend of technical, commercial, and administrative capabilities and twenty years of international industry experience, we provide specialised project management and troubleshooting services with an emphasis on outcomes.

WHY CHOOSE US?

Capability

At Newman Eventus we focus on outcomes and deliver when it matters.

Flexibility

Newman Eventus can adapt to any situation and deliver the outcome you need.

Experience

With Newman Eventus you will benefit from our years of international business experience.

“

We are like a Swiss Army knife: not the first choice in some cases, but highly versatile and exactly what you need in certain situations.
